

PUB-03 · Technology Continuity Readiness Snapshot

PUBLIC · ILLUSTRATIVE ARTIFACT

A public illustration of continuity exposure when the incumbent technology provider becomes unavailable.

CONTINUITY CONDITIONS

Continuity domain	Independent capability to demonstrate	Evidence considered	Current readiness	Critical gap
Build and change	Authorized team can rebuild and modify	Retained source, tools and tested execution
Operations and recovery	Service can be diagnosed and restored	Observed recovery and incident evidence
Rights and access	Successor can lawfully operate and administer	Licenses, identity and asset control
Knowledge and transition	Internal or successor team can assume duties	Demonstrated tasks and transition evidence

TRANSITION EXPOSURE

Dependency / failure scenario	Business consequence	Interim continuity path	Remediation owner	Verification required

READINESS DECISION

Service	Readiness conclusion	Evidence limitation	Required next action	Decision authority
---------	----------------------	---------------------	----------------------	--------------------

OPERATING PRINCIPLE

A documented exit plan is not proof of transferability. Readiness requires evidence that essential services can continue without the incumbent.
